

Gotta Catch The Rare Ones Too

Legendary Pokémon are notoriously difficult to capture, and constitute only sixty-five of the eight-hundred Pokémon existing within the first six generations. But which types account for the majority among these sixty-five? The below infographic provides a count for Type 1 of each legendary Pokémon - have a look at which ones really are worth catching!

Neither Type 1 nor Type 2 Bug type Pokémon appear on the list of Legendary Pokémon

The Legendary Pokémon with the highest total value (780),

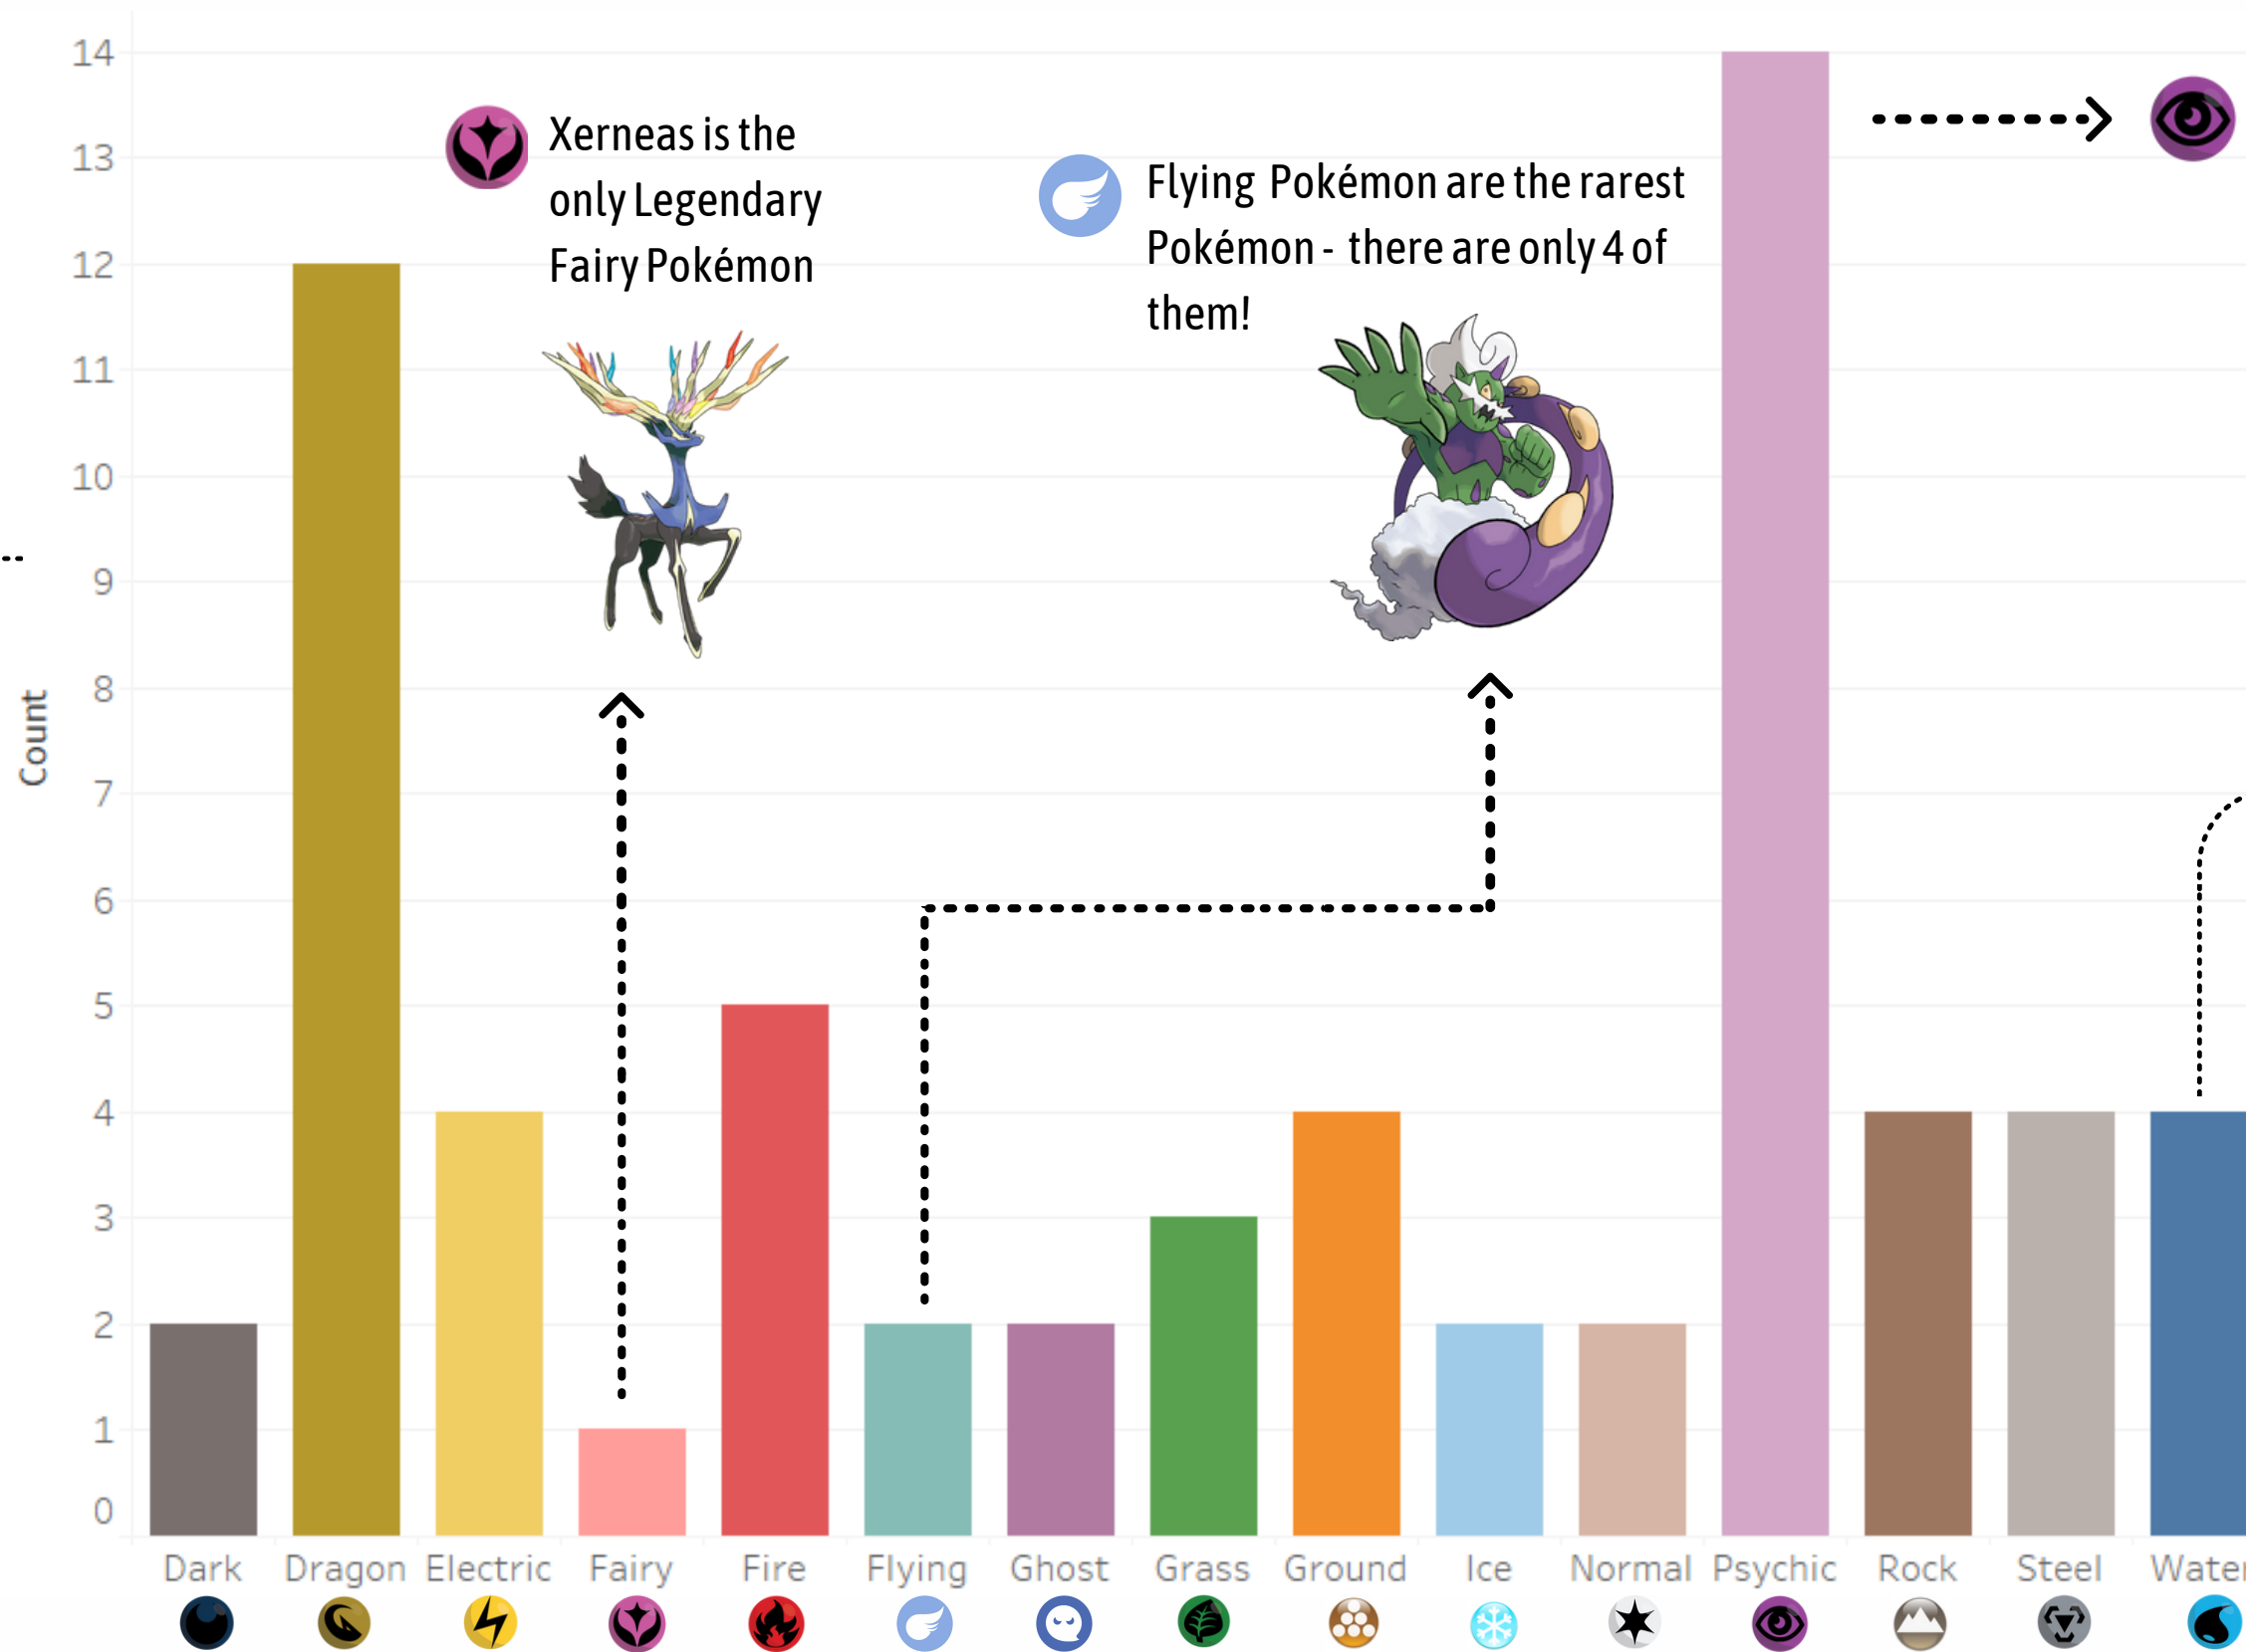

Mega Rayquaza
Dragon + Flying

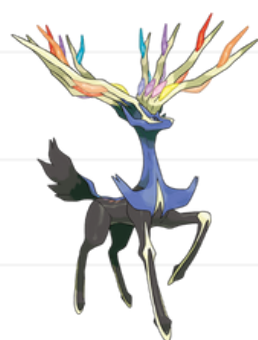

Mega Mewtwo X
Psychic + Fighting

Mega Mewtwo Y
Psychic

Xerneas is the only Legendary Fairy Pokémon

Flying Pokémon are the rarest Pokémon - there are only 4 of them!

Pokémon with Type 1 as "Psychic" and no second type dominate the list of Legendary Pokémon - there are 9 of them!

Despite having the most Pokémon overall, the Water type is dwarfed by the "Psychic", "Dragon", and "Fire" types on the Legendary list
